SCENE OF COLLISION - One woman died and two persons suffered injuries in this two-car collision on Little River Bridge early Saturday morning. Charges of involuntary manslaughter were filed by authorities against a 31-year-old Rockdale driver in connection with the head-on collision.

MERRY CHRISTMAS...

It may be a hint of the way things are in mid-December.

An Abilene truckdriver had about $300 worth of Christmas presents under his Christmas tree at home... you know, for his kids.

"The children were all happy and joyful wrapping Christmas presents the night before," the man told the press.

Next day, he came home and his kids were crying.

Why?

Abilene police said burglars entered the house through a bathroom window, took the presents and walked out.

The truckdriver and his wife had been buying presents for their four children since mid-summer.

Missing were a CB radio, a digital clock and a camera, among other things.

"We're not going to let anyone take away our holiday," the man said to reporters.

Maybe by next mid-summer the presents will be replaced. But, look at the sunny side: the family still has their Christmas tree.

Head-On Injures Five

A head-on collision between two vehicles one and a half miles from Cameron Monday at 11:50 a.m. sent five to the hospital.

Sandra Brice of Rt. 2 Rockdale was the driver of a 1977 Chevrolet involved in the accident. The second vehicle was driven by Betty Bullock of Milam.

Passengers in the Brice automobile were Judy Anderson, Jerry Griffith, and Leslie Boggan. They were taken to St. Edward's Hospital.

Betty Bullock was taken to the Newton Hospital.

All of the injured were reported to be in good condition following the accident.

Milton Wright was the investigating officer.

Rockdalian Makes Bond After Collision

Funeral services were Monday for Julia Trevino DeLeon, 31, of Rockdale, killed in a head-on collision Saturday at Little River Bridge.

Jimmy Galvan, 31, of Rockdale, is out on $3,000 bond, following charges of involuntary manslaughter in connection with the accident. Arraignment was in Justice Court of JP Jess Brock.

Two passengers in the DeLeon vehicle were taken to Cameron hospitals. Victoria Trevino, 39, is in fair condition at Newton Memorial and Santos Trevino, 24, has been released after treatment for lacerations at St. Edward Hospital.

The DeLeon vehicle was going south and the Galvan car going north at time of the collision, State Trooper Milton Wright said. Mrs. DeLeon was found pinned in her car.

Rev. Louis Pavlicek officiated at services for the accident victim at Green Funeral Home. Burial was in Hernandez Cemetery, Cameron.

Survivors include: her mother, Mrs. Mary Trevino, of Grant, N. M.; four children, Cynthia and Sallie DeLeon, Eddie and Dolores DeLeon, all of Rockdale; five brothers, Joe Trevino, Jr., of Buckholts, Nick Trevino, of Rockdale, Marcellino, Frank and Domingo Trevino, all of Grant, N. M.; four sisters, Miss Victoria Trevino and Mrs. Mary DeLeon, of Rockdale; Mrs. Susie Trevino, of Cameron and Mrs. Fidenicia Rodriguez, of San Antonio.

Auto, Rail Damaged

A one car accident occurred on Highway 945 at Walkers Creek east of Cameron Tuesday about 8 a.m. A 1971 Ford driven by Doris Blue of Route 3 Cameron skidded on a bridge and hit the guard rail. The car came to rest on the embankment by the bridge.

The right side of the vehicle and the guard rail were both heavily damaged.

The driver was not injured.

Milam Commissioners Vote Funds, Make Appointments

The Milam County Commissioners Court voted Monday to have worn out volumes containing indexes and county records repaired by the J. W. Dolly Company of Burnet. Rebinding the volumes will cost $3,665. The work will be paid for in two payments, rather than all at one time, as suggested by County Auditor J. C. Andres.

The Commissioners also voted to reimburse the City of Rockdale for $1,154. $45 for rent and utilities of the Welfare Office. $540 of that amount is for rent.

In other action, the Commissioners voted to give county employees a $15 Christmas bonus. This does not apply to elected officials.

The Commissioners appointed Dr. Sidney H. Richardson as County Health Officer. Walter Pyle and Richard Crowe were appointed to the Cameron Milam County Airport Zoning Board.

Judge O. B. Hardin asked Andres to seek bids on several typewriter for the County Tax Assessors and Collectors Office which need to be replaced.

Gerald Smart of the Texas Employment Commission met with the Commissioners at 11 a.m. to go over the alternatives the County has in the matter of unemployment compensation, which the County and other agencies will have to take part in beginning in January.

The Commissioners will meet again Thursday at 9

CISD Board Reviews, Updates Policy

The Cameron School Board Monday night adopted the Board Policies which have been under study by the Board. Five voted for and one abstained. Board member Becky Magre abstained.

Before voting, the Board completed their study and discussion of the volume of rules and regulations for students and school personnel.

In service training is required of Cameron teachers. Personnel must work towards a Masters Degree, attend workshops, or exhibit other evidence of professional growth. Supt. Buddy Dulin pointed out that such professional development is added to Board Policy to assist teachers using educational expenses as tax deductions.

A 3-day suspension policy was reviewed by Superintendent Dulin. He said that the 3 day suspension is enough. However, he said that there is a 10 day suspension period. This 3-day suspension is most often given when students refuse to take "licks" as punishment. Parents usually have to come back to school with the student before they are admitted back in their classes, depending on the problem.

The dress code for the Cameron schools drew the most debate. Magre opened the discussion by stating that the laws of this country say that you can't have different rules for males and females. Supt. Dulin answered that the board policy is not law that will hold up in court. Magre said that, through Title XIX, funds can be cut off to schools who differentiate between rules for boys and girls. Dulin replied that the equal rights law is an HEW regulation.

Dulin stated that the dress code is not an attempt to make females second class citizens.

Magre questioned the idea of a dress code since none was in the previous policy book. She asked why one and a half pages have been added now.

Supt. Dulin defended the dress code for students by adding that all three principals are in favor of adding a dress code for teachers as well. He said several teachers, in previous years were asked not to wear particular outfits again and there was no problem at that time. However principals were concerned that a problem could occur without some specific guidelines to follow.

Dulin said that the dress code is easier to enforce if guidelines are spelled out. He said that the words "he" and "she" need not be used. Magre asked how many boys would turn up at school wearing skirts, except as a joke, if told they could wear skirts. She asked why it states that girl's jeans must be hemmed and boys don't.

The Board voted to adopt the dress code 5 votes for and Magre voting against.

The section on automobiles was clarified to state that automobiles may be used during the lunch hour. Students are to walk from one side of Yoe campus to the other.

Parents have not been notified in the past when a child is kept for detention. The Policy Book calls for this procedure to be carried out now, and an effort will be made to contact parents.

The Policy Book also states how long students should stay at home due to contagious diseases.

Student awards and scholarships are also given a section in the Policy Book. Magre asked what the section actually was about. Dulin explained that this section is about the valedictorian, salutatorian, Betty Crocker Awards and the many other scholarships, are given on Awards Day.

After voting to adopt the policies set forth in the Policy Book, Supt. Dulin noted that it is impossible to cover everything. He said that the dress code should keep to acceptable styles, as nearly as possible.

In other action, president Calvin Cobb read a letter from Odell and Viola Biggs. The couple will retire at the end of this school year. Mr. Biggs is a Plan A Supervisor and Mrs. Biggs is a 6th grade math teacher. The Board voted to accept their resignations.

Dulin told the Board that all records are being sent to Huntsville to be microfilmed. The records contain such documents as transcripts. The microfilmed records will be stored for safekeeping in case of fire.

Class For Emergency Care Attendants To Begin Jan. 16

A class for Emergency Care Attendants (E.C.A.) will be conducted January 16 through February 16 at the Cameron Community Center for persons wishing to join the ambulance service. The classes will be on Monday and Thursday nights from 6-10 p.m.

Mrs. Moseley, Pam Browder, and Tense Tumlinson are all Emergency Medical Services instructors for Region VI and have taught classes throughout the area.

Ambulance service personnel cover the north end of Milam county.

There are about 40 ECA's in Cameron, 4 EMT's and 7 who are in the EMT training program in Temple.

Members of the ambulance service take 12 hour shifts. There are 3 on call at all times.

To enroll in the course, contact the Cameron City Hall at

SRO For CTSO, TCC

It's been about seven years since members of the Central Texas Symphony Orchestra have appeared in concert here, but Saturday they will accompany the 70 - voice Temple Civic Chorus.

The Central Texas Symphony at the turn of the 1970s had almost 50 members and traveled to Cameron, Killen, Belton and Temple concerts for a couple of seasons.

This is a welcome return of an area symphony group, now more the size of a chamber orchestra, but easily capable of the musical task in Bach's "Magnificat" and Handel's "Messiah".

We congratulate Cameron's First Baptist Church on inviting and providing audi-

What Others Say:
Favoring Limited Terms

You can complain about any government program you want to: food stamps, give ways, Panama Canal, national debt, taxes, farm programs. But our number one problem is our elected officials not doing their jobs. And they will not perform under the present rules.

Ask a number of your friends if they think elected officials should make a lifetime career of public service. It is our experience that the large majority of people will answer "No." To continue the longevity system makes election day, for all practical purposes, an exercise in futility for the voters.

It is tough enough to contend with professionals who settle into the bland mediocrity of civil service and stay there for what seems to be eternity. It makes no sense whatsoever to allow the politicians to continue to build their own power bases to such an extent that every decision is made, not in the best interests of the country or the folks back home, but on the effects it will have on the politician's future.

Election after election the candidates of every party repeatedly call for a return of the government to the people, an appeal that loses its appeal as soon as the candidates take office. Immediately the elected officials must, by the very nature of the system, begin to look ahead to re-election!

This country has, by and large, been blessed with some truly great people who have made careers of four decades and more in public office. But greatness is not a shortage in America. We torium space for these groups.

Several soloists will be featured during the performance. And the orchestra will play Corelli's "Christmas Concerto" between the choral works.

What with the death of Elvis and a continuing awareness of what makes any type of music great, Cameron may again find public awareness for the excellence of Bach and Handel and complex beauty of the string orchestra.

It is a public performance and we bet the building will be filled to capacity or what is called in show business "Standing Room Only."

SRO is what this kind of Christmas concert deserves.

are not bankrupt in leadership. The time has arrived when the one-term senator, the one-term representative and the one-term president must be elected. Establish a term of four, even six years, but make the length of service in office one term only.

The one-term government will allow an official to spend 100 per cent of his term, from the first day to the last, working in a true statesman-like manner, serving the people rather than running for office while on the government payroll.

Even the best people have to battle the greed for power, the lust for fame, and the sterility of stagnation that wraps around the career politician. The system must be structured to allow the elected official to run for office, serve in the best interests of the people, and proudly come home when his term is over.

If it's such a good idea, why don't we do it? Simply to go to the polls and vote another name is not enough. The rules must be changed.

How do we change the system? Certainly not through the career politicians who are in office. It is not reasonable to expect them to seriously pursue any plan that will send them back home. However, this still is a government of the people, by the people. If enough people demand it we can bring the issue to a vote.

If no one else wants to coordinate this effort, we will. Let us hear from you and we will keep you informed of our progress. Write to Jay Swayze, P. O. Box 1556, Hereford, Texas, 79045.

Product-Insurance Rates Soar

AUSTIN—Another type of insurance rates—on products liability—may be soaring soon.

"Premiums are beginning to go up. I can't tell from talking to my staff whether they are skyrocketing, but the fuse is lit," State Insurance Board Chairman Hugh Yantis told a House Joint Committee on Products Liability.

The committee, which held a hearing here last week, is seeking means to curb the rates and make coverage easily available.

Yantis suggested one way to hold the line would be to limit the length of time a manufacturer can be held liable for injuries due to use of faulty products.

Ed Clay, a Grand Prairie truck bodies and equipment manufacturer, said products liability insurance he paid $600 for in 1973 (on $300,000 limits) now costs him $29,000 (for $500,000 in coverage), although his sales have not increased.

Both Yantis and Clay suggested the legislature should consider whether a person hurt by equipment should be able to collect both workers' compensation and damages for products liability.

Yantis said insurance companies are increasing rates and limiting coverage because they are afraid of what may happen in future cases, although they have no reliable data concerning losses.

"We have a lot of philosophizing to do that hasn't been done about the extent to which manufacturers should be held liable for accidents involving their products," Yantis told the committee.

Appointments Announced

Gov. Dolph Briscoe named Wilbur C. Davis of Bryan, 85th district judge, and Jim Vollers of Austin, state prosecuting attorney, as new judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals. A constitutional amendment recently increased the size of the court. Two commissioners on the court, Tom G. Davis and Carl E. F. Dally, also are automatically elevated to full judgeships by the amendment.

Mrs. Connie L. Jackson of Dallas was designated by Supreme Court Chief Justice Joe R. Greenhill as a member of the Board of Pardons and Paroles, succeeding the late Selma Wells of Houston.

Briscoe reappointed Don R. Workman of Lubbock and Ruben Schaeffer of El Paso to Texas Youth Council.

The governor selected 17 Texans to take part in the White House Conference on Balanced National Growth and Economic Development next month in Washington, D.C.

Dr. Wayne J. Thorburn, 33, an assistant professor of political science at Arkansas State University, has been named executive director of the Texas Republican Party.

Galveston lawyer William Rider is a new member of the Board of Private Investigators and Private Security Agencies.

UT Fund Continues Growth

Another record sale of state land leases added $17.8 million to The University of Texas Permanent University Fund.

The sale broke the old record of $16.3 million set in June 1956.

Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong attributed renewed interest to higher prices now being paid for intra-state gas and possible higher inter-state prices under consideration by a House-Senate conference committee in Washington.

Among the Texas Courts

The Third Court of Civil Appeals turned down Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's request to throw out the new Public Utility Commission rate-making formula for telephone service. PUC approved a $57.8 million rate hike last year—$173 million less than Bell sought.

The Court of Criminal Appeals reversed a death penalty conviction of a Gatesville man in a murder case and ordered a new trial.

The same court also reversed an Odessa marijuana life sentence on grounds the trial court refused to hear testimony aimed at challenging a key state witness.

The Texas Supreme Court agreed to hear a controversy over interest rates on almost $10 million worth of judgments in Houston and Dallas courts.

State Attorney General John Hill called on the U.S. Supreme Court to nullify a Federal Power Commission ruling which would force sale of more Texas natural gas out of state.

Attorney General Opinions

Texas Historical Commission may promulgate a rule providing for a special election to fill a vacancy in the office of chairman and make it applicable to the term of the present chairman Attorney General Hill has held. In the absence of such a rule, the opinion concluded, the agency's vice-chairman should serve as acting chairman.

In another recent opinion, Hill determined Harris

County justices of the peace are not required by statute to publish semi-annual status reports on their revenues and activities. He said a new law on the subject is applicable only to the city of Fort Worth.

Hill also concluded a person may serve as both a member of Camp Wood city council and as a trustee of the Southwest Texas Joint County Junior College.

Short Snorts

Gov. Dolph Briscoe has called on Texas law enforcement officials to help develop a new crime control program for legislative consideration in 1979.

Federal officials have given assurances new regulations won't force closing of Texas hospitals and clinics.

Dear Editor:

Every Sunday and Thursday I read the Herald and I wouldn't miss finding out about what is happening for the world.

Everything is getting so high around here, and I know you're finding it the same way. Light bills, gas bills, and everything else is about to "eat our lunch."

There's one bright spot on the horizon in our county, and I un-

OLD

Dear editor:

One of the major airlines, being sued for millions by the victims of a plane crash in a storm last year, is now suing the Weather Bureau for not giving it a correct weather report. It says the Bureau was "negligent in gathering and disseminating weather conditions," which caused the pilot to fly into a storm with tragic results.

I am going to watch that suit very carefully, and I imagine a lot of lawyers will too. It opens up boundless possibilities for more court business than the profession has dreamed of. Just think, an end to no-fault weather predicting.

For example, say the Weather Bureau predicts continued sunny weather for the next three days, you go ahead and cut your hay, and it rains cats and dogs that night. You've got a case. Call your lawyer. He's probably sitting by his phone waiting.

And there are all sorts of other possibilities. A rained-out political rally expected to raise $300,000 for some Senator. Snowed-in office workers who can't get home at night. Housewives who believed a forecast and didn't protect their pot plants the night the temperature went to 25. People washed out by an unpredicted flood. Thousands of school kids threatening to riot because the school bus couldn't run and their education was interrupted. Etc.

If the government is smart it'll fight that airline's suit with everything it's got, and in the meantime bond its forecasters against other damage suits. Some of them I figure would have to put up bonds of at least a billion dollars apiece.

Actually of course the suit may fall on the grounds that weather forecasting is guessing, and when the guess turns out wrong, it was not the forecaster's fault, it was the weather's. It changed. Sue it.

You see, there's as much difference between what a forecaster says tonight and the weather does tomorrow as there is between what a candidate says in the campaign and does in the office. I have long contended that many weather forecasters got their training as sports writers predicting football scores.

Yours faithfully,

derstand you are in the 11th Congressional district, too -- so I thought I would let you know about a good man for Congress who has fought to bring some of these prices down.

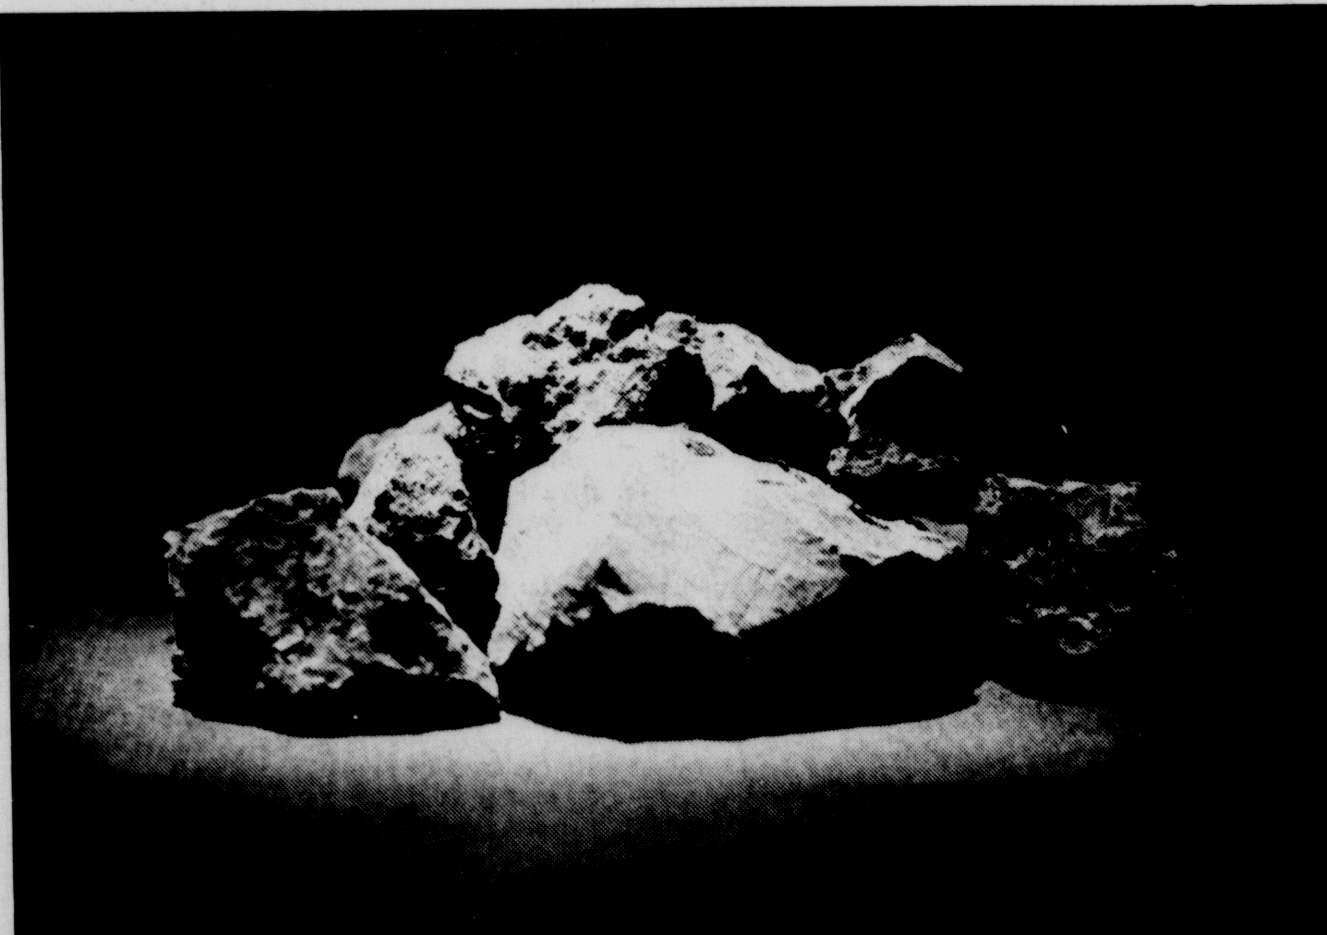

Lane Denton worked hard in the Texas Legislature to keep utility firms from hitting us any harder, and we have found him to be sincere and trustworthy.

He's running for Congress, and we believe he's tough enough to make a difference in Washington. You'll probably want to vote for him, too.

It's been cold here, and it takes a lot of gas to heat my old house, so I really need someone in Washington to help me. I think about it every time I turn on the heater.

I hope everyone has a real nice holiday season, and come and see us.

Best wishes,

Lignite: it will help us keep your electric bill as low as possible.

It's dirty, greasy and not a pretty sight to look at. But it's a cheaper source of fuel than natural gas and more powerful!

Now you know why your electric cooperative is beginning to think that Lignite is looking better and prettier every day.

Because of skyrocketing cost of natural gas, we along with other electric cooperatives in Texas have sought out vast reserves of lignite as a less expensive source of fuel to produce electricity.

Soon our lignite fired generating plant will energize the same electric wires providing electric power from expensive natural gas. It's just one way the member-owned electric cooperatives are working to keep your electric bills as low as possible.

Brazos Berries Get Companions

By Bill McCutchen
Three new blackberry varieties have been released by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station as a companion or replacement varieties for the Brazos berry. The fruit are firmer and better quality, with smaller seed size than the Brazos berry. The canes grow somewhat more upright and will out-produce Brazos under some conditions.

The three varieties are Brison Womack, and Rosborough. The Brison is recommended for the South Central Texas Area. The Womack has been the best performer at Stephenville and the Womack and Rosborough have performed equally well at College Station.

If you are interested in obtaining root cuttings contact the Foundation Seed Service, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas 77840. Only a limited number of cuttings will be available.

"Gardening For Food and Fun" -- I have just received my copy of the 1977 Yearbook of agriculture "Gardening for Food and Fun."

The yearbook is practical for all types of gardeners, from the serious to the novice.

The yearbook deals with four general areas: "Introduction to Gardening", "Home Garden Vegetables", "Fruits and Nuts", and "Home Food Preservation."

This publication should be popular as gardening has become quite popular recently.

The yearbook is available for $6.50 from government bookstores or the U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. U. S. Senators and representatives have a limited number of books for free distribution.

Bankers To Eye Farm Electronics

COLLEGE STATION
Bank personnel attending the 26 Farm and Ranch Credit School for Commercial Bankers at Texas A&M University, Feb. 6-7, will be brought up to date on "electronic" marketing of farm commodities.

A special session on the latest computer marketing techniques which bring sellers and purchasers together electronically will feature Jimmy Nail of the Plains Cotton Co-op Association, and Dr. Ernest Davis, marketing economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Other topics to be covered during the two-day school are the 1977 Farm Bill and its implications on Texas banking, government guaranteed loan programs, and outlook information on various agricultural commodities, says Dr. Richard Edwards, Extension economist and publicity chairman of the school.

A special loan analysis session will deal with four major loan areas -- crops and machinery, cow-calf operations, feedlots and dairying.

Immediately following the school will be an Agricultural Credit Analysis Workshop which will begin Feb. 8 and end the morning of Feb. 10. This workshop will provide an in-depth treatment of financial statement preparation and analysis, reconciling farm records, and preparing cash flow projections. Case problems will be solved to provide realistic experience for attending bankers, adds Edwards.

A special two day Commodity Hedging Session will be conducted during the same time period as the credit workshop. This session will provide an in-depth look at the mechanics of hedging, hedging as a forward pricing tool, hedging decision guides, and living with a hedged loan, notes Edwards.

For further information on the school, write Edwards at Room 110 Agricultural Building, Texas A&M University, College Station, 77843.

Janak Says Now Time For Show

By Joseph D. Janak, Jr.
Assistant County Extension Agent

With the County Livestock Show about a month away 4-H'ers will be needing to get their livestock prepared for the show. Steers will need to be clipped and lambs sheared as needed to be presentable at the County Show January 13 and 14.

Wednesday night December 21 starting at 6:30 p.m. and Thursday morning December 22 from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, a 4-H Project Clinic will be held in the Youth Exposition Building in Cameron. Included in this clinic will be demonstrations on how to trim steers, heifers, dairy and lambs. Fitting and showing techniques will also be discussed for each class of livestock.

All 4-H'ers are invited and encouraged to come to one of these two clinics at their convenience. If clippers, extension cord, brushes, and accessories are obtainable, bring them because we only have a limited supply. So mark the 21 and 22 of December on your calendar and plan to attend this clinic.

The entries for the County Livestock Show are coming in slowly but surely. Get them into the office by the 16 of December if possible with the deadline being December 31. They can be dropped off in the basement of the courthouse where our office is or mailed to Joseph D. Janak, Jr., Route 2, Box 16-F, Cameron, Texas 76520.

FW Rodeo Readies For 82nd Renewal With Cervi Co.

Production of the Fort Worth Rodeo, planned in conjunction with the 82nd annual Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show Jan. 25 through Feb. 5, will be directed by Mike Cervi of Sterling, Colorado.

W. R. Watt Jr., Stock Show president-manager, said Cervi's firm, the Mike Cervi Championship Rodeo Company, is the largest production company in the nation.

"We are pleased to be working again with this outstanding organization," Watt said. "Our rodeo, being one of the nation's largest, makes it necessary to have a firm with large production capabilities."

The Stock Show Rodeo has been expanded to 22 performances with opening night on Wednesday instead of the traditional Friday, Watt said. Rodeo tickets are priced at $4 each and can be purchased at the box office in the lobby of Will Rogers Coliseum.

Watt said mail orders are being accepted only for weekday performances as several of the weekend rodeos have been sold out. Performances are at 8 p.m. Jan. 24 through Feb. 4, 2 p.m. Jan. 28 through Feb. 5, and a special morning matinee at 10 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 28. Mail orders must include an extra $1 for return postage and handling.

Over 500 cowboys are expected to enter the five major Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association events, bull, bareback and saddle bronc riding, calf roping and steer wrestling, plus the added feature of the Wild Horse Race.

Purse money added to entry fees will push total prizes available to more than $138,000. All rodeo performances will be held in Will Rogers Coliseum on the Stock Show grounds.

Cervi will bring in many of the world champion bucking horses and bulls along with fresh, strong calves and steers for the timed events. In all, over 250 head of bucking horses, 150 bucking bulls and some 400 roping calves and dogging steers will be used.

Monday, January 9, Dr. Bill Cawley, Poultry specialist from Texas A&M University will be visiting with 4-H youth in Milam County who took on the project of raising broilers. 4-H and FFA youth who took on this project will want to attend for Dr. Cawley will be explaining what to look for in selecting broilers for the show. Other points of interest would be showing and preparation techniques.

ENCOURAGING WORDS--Farmers participating in a convoy of trucks and tractors which converged on the State Capitol Sept. 20 to protest low farm prices listen attentively as Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown pledges to give full support to efforts to raise prices and assure fair profits.

Cattle Feed Prices Are Down But Other Problems Crop Up

AUSTIN--Hopes for much-needed price gains on beef may be dashed due to cheaper feed prices which are allowing Texas cattle producers to feed out more animals, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown notes.

The 1,550,000 head of cattle and calves on feed for the slaughter market in Texas at the beginning of last month was five per cent higher than the same time a year ago, Brown said. "Cheaper feed prices will also keep a lid on pork and poultry prices, which will remain in competition with beef at the grocery store," Brown explained.

Texas cattle feeders placed 366,000 head into their lots during August, nine per cent above August, 1976, and one per cent above the previous month. There were 377,000 head of fat cattle marketed during August, nine per cent above a year ago and 20 per cent above July marketings.

Cattle and calves on feed Sept. 1 for slaughter market totaled 6,718,000 head in the seven states, including Texas, preparing monthly estimates. The seven-state total was up four per cent from last year and 13 per cent more than the same date in 1975.

Dry conditions on many Texas pastures during August and early September also resulted in the movement of additional animals off land that could no longer support them and into feedlots.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF

ACCIDENT CONTROL

To reduce holiday fire hazards in the home, use non-combustible decorating materials and place wrappings in trash containers immediately after opening Christmas gifts, advises the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE

Beginning January 1, some agricultural employers will have to start paying unemployment insurance for their employees, says a sociologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Employers who hire 10 or more workers at least one day a week in each of 20 weeks in a calendar year or who have a total payroll equal to or greater than $20,000 in any calendar quarter will be required to provide unemployment insurance coverage on their workers.

Farm Firm Airs Ag Message By Idaho Cattleman

Hesston Corporation and participating Hesston dealers will air a non-commercial message dramatizing the importance of agriculture to the North American economy during the televised final performance of the National Finals Rodeo December 16 in the U. S.

The message for the one-minute spot was submitted to Hesston last April by E. T. Evans, a Boise, Idaho cattle rancher. Hesston had asked members of the American National Cattleman's Association (now National Cattlemen's Association) for a message supporting agriculture. NCA members would like to tell the N.F.R. television audience. "In 1896, William Jennings Bryan said it best," Evans wrote to Hesston. "Burn down your cities and leave our farms, and your cities will spring up again as if by magic, but destroy our farms and the grass will grow in the streets of every city in the country."

"As long as the North American farmer can supply our food at a price that allows us to spend the greatest part of our income for our cars and TVs and recreational items, our high standard of living can continue. But, when our farmers can no longer produce our low-cost food, or when they have no economic incentive or ability to produce this food, truly, again, the grass will grow in the streets of every city in the country." A photograph depicting a deserted, cracked city street, overgrown with weeds, impacts the message graphically.

Hesston reproduced the Evans' message for their dealers to distribute to farmers and ranchers. The reproduction is suitable for framing.

An audience estimated at 20 million will see the N.F.R. telecast in mid-December on a special network of 177 TV stations.

Chairman Kupiak Hales Need For Land Tax Study

AUSTIN

Stating that it was time to stop "beating around the bush" on the issue of property taxes in Texas, Rep. Dan Kupiak of Rockdale emphasized the challenge put forth to the Joint Committee to Study the Ad Valorem Tax in its first meeting.

Recently appointed to chair the committee, Kupiak set forth the committee goals -- namely to study the ad valorem tax and its effect on agricultural land and to look into other methods of financing Texas public schools.

"It is mandatory that we find alternatives to the present inequitable school finance system," stressed Kupiak. "By burdening farmers and ranchers with these unfair property tax assessments we are, in fact, penalizing our state's food and fiber producers."

The agenda for the interim committee will include a succession of statewide hearings in approximately six different cities in the State. Kupiak said the committee welcomes all citizens to voice their opinions on this tax, for the property tax often times dictates the "profit and loss" on small farms and businesses forcing many to sell out. The Rockdale legislator also pointed out that families without children are often pitted against families with children as property taxes cause personal as well as community conflicts.

"We are beyond a crisis point in this issue and it is imperative that we reevaluate the state revenue system whereby all wealth is taxed fairly," stated Kupiak. "This may mean taxing intangibles, I do not know. This is what the committee will be looking into."

The recent ruling on HB 22 provides even more impetus that the committee look toward alternatives to the ad valorem tax pointed out Kupiak. Farmers and ranchers cannot continue to carry the burden for public school finance any longer, and they should not be expected to.

"We have great support and interest today in Texas' number one winning football team" Kupiak stated. "I, too, am excited for I am a football fan like most everyone."

"But if we could develop as much support and interest in making our school finance system number one, we would have the problem licked. I have the confidence that this committee will meet this challenge competently and successfully."

Some ancient people believed that their spirits would be reborn as flowers.

News From Calvert

By Cecelia Conitz Heinrich

The art show with Rachael Tenyson as featured artist which was held at Pauline Burnitt's Cotton Blossom shop in Calvert Dec. 9-11 was truly an exciting experience. The shop was beautifully decorated for Christmas and the paintings were exquisite. With the artist on hand to talk to guests, the affair was even more interesting. Porcelain birds and jewelry by Inge of Chilton enhanced the downstairs exhibit. Silver appointments were used in serving refreshments of punch, cookies, and coffee. Thelma Gaffney, Jeanie Wiese and Sheryl Cain were on hand Sunday to assist with hostess duties and serving on Sunday. Bill Herring, Waco artist and former announcer for KWTX-TV, was on hand to talk with guests. His work was displayed in the upstairs gallery, along with several other artists' paintings.

Sticky-fingered thieves are at work in Calvert, again. Some items are small, such as a dirty trash can left outside. But BOB Davis has had a newspaper rack taken from the front of his store, and for two weeks in a row, he has had deliveries of chicken taken. Last week, not only were the chickens taken, but also tomatoes and apples which were delivered at the same time. Davis is a fairly generous person, willing to give help to someone in need, but he has no patience for a "low down thief". It's a shame that some people ruin a part of the small, quiet atmosphere that Calvert tries to have, with their stealing and their vandalism.

The Calvert High School Composite Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol has changed their meeting time from Monday nights to Wednesday from 2:30 - 4 p.m., Capt. Bertha Hanhart, commander announced. The organization is looking for new members from the area for the volunteer program.

Mary Leggett is recuperating at The Oaks after she spent some time in the hospital due to a broken leg. She is most appreciative and wished to thank all of those who have sent flowers, visited, and been so nice to her. Mrs. Pauline Young and Mrs. White visited her on Thursday. Mrs. Robert Griffin, Mrs. Millten, of Sillsbee, and Mrs. Callahan and her daughter of Oakdale, Louisiana visited Charlie and Mary Leggett and J. B. Leggett last weekend.

The Calvert City Council met Monday, Dec. 5 at 7 p.m. The council held the required hearing on the budget during this meeting. Salaries are to be raised on account of the increase in the minimum wage which goes into effect in January, according to City Secretary, Ora Dell Nash.

Mayor Wiese reported that the sewer project will be completed in December.

Robert Comfort discussed the report he is preparing with Steve Kerbow for assistance with the Parks and Wildlife Department on Will Kemp Park.

Several citizens appeared in concern with a mobile home which had been placed in Calvert several months ago. The council voted 4 to 1 to rezone a certain area of Leroy Butler's property to permit a mobile home to be parked out of view.

Dr. and Mrs. Orville Schroeder of Beeville and Leroy Davis of Houston were in Calvert after attending funeral services for Mrs. Maurice (Davis) Baxter. Mrs. Schroeder is the former Mattie Lou Davis.

Dr. Joe Weldon Bailey, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Calvert, was hospitalized Wednesday, Dec. 14. Dr. Bailey was suffering from exhaustion, according to his wife Marjorie. He was undergoing tests, and resting in the hospital in Rosebud.

Lois Randolph of Cameron has entered Scott and White Hospital in Temple for eye surgery. Her sister, Mrs. Paul Porter of Calvert will be with her.

Saturday, Dec. 17, Calvert will be having Trades Day beginning about 1:30 p.m. with the Calvert band performing, drawings for merchandise and gifts, and an appearance by Santa Claus. The Calvert Chamber of Commerce sponsors this annual event.

The Robertson County Historical Commission will have its Christmas Party at the "Blue House" Saturday Dec. 17 at 7:30 p.m. 1978 memberships may be paid at this time.

The Calvert P.T.A. will have their Christmas program featuring the elementary school children Dec. 15 at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria on the Spigner campus. The elementary school will have their Christmas program the morning of Dec. 21.

Rogers News

Seventy-three members and guests enjoyed the Rogers Community Service Club's annual Christmas dinner-party at the Civic Center Saturday night, with the President, Dr. H. A. Schubert as master of ceremonies.

The hall was decorated in the Christmas motif, with individual tables of six people instead of the usual long table. The decorations were hand-made by members of the decorating committee, except the flowers -- poinsettias. Mrs. Schubert was chairman of the committee with these members: Mrs. Barber Hill, Mrs. Clayton Clowers, and Mrs. Philip Franzord. The arrangements committee: Mrs. Doyle Ray, chairman, Mrs. D. D. Ward, and Mrs. Malvin Cobb, general chairman. Others volunteered to help.

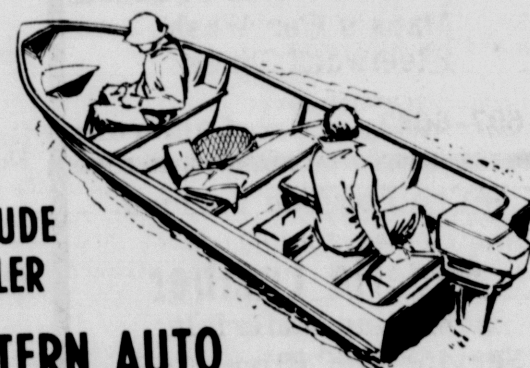

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Benefield were presented as new members of the club. Guests included children and grandchildren of members, for the most part. Special guests were the Reverend and Mrs. Roy May, pastor of the First United Methodist Church and he gave the invocation.

Mrs. Milton Wendler presented the members who gave the musical program. She and Mrs. Marvin Ralston, accompanied by Mrs. Milton Keigh, sang "White Christmas" and other Christmas songs. Mrs. Wendler and Mrs. Hulton Harrell accompanied by Mrs. Ralston, led the audience in a sing-song of Christmas songs.

Doyle Ray, general program chairman, led the committee in the exchange of gifts among members and visitors. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spinn registered members and guests. Door prizes were won by Jesse Cobb, Mrs. Ralston, and Wayne Cornelius.

KEYED UP.

In 1832, Sam Morse knew he had a great idea at his fingertips. Sending messages by wire.

When he did, the results were electrifying. The future of the telegraph (and Sam Morse) was assured.

Your future could be assured, too, if you get this message: Invest in United States Savings Bonds.

Sign up for the Payroll Savings Plan where you work and your earnings will automatically buy Bonds.

And your results could be even more electrifying than Sam's.

Buy U.S. Savings Bonds. They're something to get keyed up about.

Series E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (1 1/2% the first year). Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

TITLE VI FUNDS have been used to purchase this vehicle to transport workers under the Milam County Manpower Program.

Manpower Funds Get New Truck For County

Legislature was passed earlier this year to make funds available under Title VI of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act for the purpose of training and work experience for unemployed and disadvantaged persons.

Under these provisions the work to be accomplished is to be of public service nature to complete projects for communities which otherwise could not be provided. Through the Central Texas Manpower Consortium there are 7 member counties including Milam County who have received funds for these purposes. Distribution of funds are based upon unemployment rates and other factors.

Milam County proposes to accomplish several projects utilizing labor provided through Title VI funds.

Projects will include: Clearing brush from road right of ways, repairing bridges, numbering of designated county roads, and other various jobs that the county precincts cannot accomplish due to their heavy workload.

In order not to interrupt the work schedules of County Commissioners and their crews, Title VI funds have been utilized

Denton Calls For Rural Fair Share In Rd-Rock Talk

Democratic congressional candidate Lane Denton has called for a "Fair Distribution of Our Nation's Resources" to the rural areas of America. In a speech to the Round Rock Lions' Club Tuesday, Denton stressed the dangers that face rural counties in Texas.

"Forty-one members of the U. S. House of Representatives do not have a single farmer in their districts," Denton said, "and population trends indicate that that number will be much larger after the next census."

The veteran legislator, known as a fiscal conservative, said that unless certain trends are reversed, our nation's economy and our way-of-life will be facing greater problems.

"Each year," Denton said, "the State of Texas loses 3,000 farming families, and two million acres of farmland are taken out of production."

"Only 12 percent of the doctors in this country are in rural areas, while 41 percent of our elderly reside there," the Waco Democrat stated. "Transportation is generally much poorer today than five or ten years ago, and the elderly are highly dependent on commercial transportation to get anywhere, including to the doctor's office."

Denton emphasized the need for adequate funding of improved water and sewer systems for rural areas and said the need for adequate water was matched only by the need for good sewer disposal systems.

"Rural America has not received its share of assistance," Denton declared, "and I would urge the President and Congress to develop a program for 'Fair Distribution' of the resources of the Nation to rural America."

to purchase a vehicle in order to transport workers under the Title VI program.

This vehicle will be available for Milam County's use for the duration of these projects.

Persons interested in these projects may contact Judge Harden at the Milam County Judge Office.

Persons interested in applying for a position on the crew may contact Patricia Epperson office manager of the Manpower Office located at 104 N. Central Street, Cameron, Texas. Phone 817-697-6894.

RSC's Dossett, Petty Named NSSEA Leaders

Walter B. Dossett, Jr., chairman of the board of Royal Seating Corp., Cameron has been elected a director-at-large at the 61st Annual Convention and Exhibit of the National School Supply & Equipment Association here.

And O. L. Petty, Jr., executive vice president of Royal Seating, has been elected to the member services committee at the 61st Annual Convention.

Petty who has been with Royal Seating Corp. some eight years, has been active for many years on Association Committees, including the nominating committee and has also served on NSSEA's Manufacturers Council and is currently one of the featured speakers on that groups Speakers Bureau.

Dossett, who has been with Royal Seating Corp. for seven years and chairman for the same period, is also active in several civic activities in the Waco, area, including one year as Mayor Pro-Tem of the city. He previously was President of Central Texas Compress Co., and Temp-Guard, Inc.

Dossett and Petty were among some 1,500 NSSEA manufacturer and distributor members, their wives and special guests who attended the Convention which also featured 340 booth and room exhibits of the newest school supplies, instructional materials and equipment to be introduced to the school marketplace in 1978 and beyond.

NSSEA, the world's largest trade association in the school supply, instructional materials and equipment industry, was organized in 1916 and now represents almost 600 companies.

Krueger Volunteers Help To Clear Up OSHA Confusion

A cutback in enforcement of OSHA (Occupational Safety and Health Administration) regulations -- which cannot be officially dropped for five months -- adds confusion to the plight of the small business person and U. S. Congressman Bob Krueger of Texas today volunteered his office as an information clearinghouse for persons seeking clarification of regulations.

Krueger, who earlier this year sponsored legislation aimed at curtailing the regulatory power of OSHA over firms with fewer than 25 employees, praised Labor Secretary Ray Marshall's announced cutback on regulations.

"This indicates that Ray Marshall not only understands the absurdity of the extent to which so many of the OSHA regulations have gone but also that he has the fortitude to do something about it."

Marshall announced December 3 that OSHA is going to curtail enforcement of regulations which OSHA now deems as "nitpicking". But federal law prevents the 1,100 rules from being dropped until a 5-month formal review period has elapsed.

"The list of regulations included the OSHA announcement is varied and covers 250 pages. Without specific information, non-enforcement of the regulations can cause as much confusion as keeping the regulations has caused. My staff, in Washington, San Antonio, Del Rio, San Angelo, and New Braunfels will be standing by to provide that information to constituents."

120,000 Aliens To Report During New Year Period

Dist. Dir. Joe F. Staley, San Antonio, of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, estimated that 120,000 aliens will report their addresses in the San Antonio area during January under the Federal Alien Address Report Program.

Staley said that all non-citizens, except those in diplomatic status and foreign representatives of certain international organizations are required to file the address report.

He added that any alien who willfully violates the address report requirement may be subject to serious penalties.

In addition, aliens who are not in the United States during January must report their addresses to the Service within 10 days after their return to this country.

The District Director said that address report cards will be available at United States post offices and at the Immigration and Naturalization Service office at San Antonio beginning January 1, 1978.
